Charity hockey event to honor four police killed March 21

October 23, 2009
Section: My Town
Cassie Harwood Oakland Tribune

The Oakland Ice Center will heat up Saturday when the Oakland police and fire departments hit the ice in the second-annual Oakland charity hockey game, an event that will commemorate the four Oakland police officers killed March 21. Proceeds from the event will benefit the families of police Sgts. Mark Dunakin, Ervin Romans and Daniel Sakai and Officer John Hege.

A silent auction will be held and will include jerseys and autographed Sharks memorabilia. Entrance is $20 for adults and $10 for children 12 and under.

The game starts at 5:45 and ends at 8:45, after which a family skate session will take place. The event is at 519 18th St., Oakland.
